Dear Employer,

As an employer of a J-1 Summer Work/Travel participant, you have obligations to the participant and Life Adventures, Inc. as the visa sponsor in order to comply with the J-1 visa regulations.

These are:

1. Fully complete the job offer form, provide the endorsement/cover page of your worker's compensation insurance policy, your current business license and answer all questions required during the verification process.
2. Fully intend to employ the participant upon his/her arrival in the United States. You are expected to stand by your employment offer. If you are unable to do so because of work conditions, you must contact Life Adventures, Inc. immediately.
3. Fully intend to give the number of hours indicated on the job offer. Participants need to work enough hours to offset the costs of the program but cannot work so many hours that they are not able to complete the required cultural activities.
4. Provide an efficient and responsive way for Life Adventures, Inc. to communicate with you before and during the program. We prefer a working email or direct line to the person responsible for hiring and/or supervising the participant.
5. Agree to communicate with the participant's sponsor in a timely fashion for:
 - a. The job verification process. We will contact you by email and phone but if do not hear back from you within a week will reject the job offer. Please make sure the contact details we give you are current and active. Give alternatives if your business is not open during specific times of the year.
 - b. Confirming the arrival of the participant within a few days of the scheduled job start date.
 - c. Assisting the sponsor to remind the participant to complete their program validation within the 10 day required time.
 - d. Assisting the sponsor if necessary with each required 30 day check in procedure.
 - e. Informing the sponsor if the participant does not initially show up for the job as scheduled and if the participant should be fired, laid off or quit during the stated job offer dates.
 - f. When possible, provide activities that will qualify as the cultural activities required by the visa.
6. Agree to assist the participant's sponsor and follow through in fulfilling cultural activities as required by the J1 visa.

Life Adventures, Inc. is the J-1 visa sponsor and bears the responsibility of communicating to the US government about the participants' whereabouts and program experiences. However, as the employer, you do play a very important role in the visa process. Please, refer to us any questions concerning Social Security cards, deducting payroll taxes, program rules and regulations. We are ready to assist you.
